

NHRW WELCOMES OCTOBER SPEAKER: LORA RIES

OCTOBER 22ND | 11:30 AM TO 1:30PM

DOORS OPEN 11:15 AM

THE PACIFIC CLUB

America's immigration debate has entered a new chapter. With the Trump administration dramatically changing the approach to border enforcement, attention is increasingly turning to the bigger questions: What happens to those already in the country illegally? How will enforcement and deportation policies unfold? What changes are coming to asylum and legal immigration, and which of today's policies will have a lasting impact?

Few people are better positioned to take us behind the headlines than Lora Ries, Director of the Border Security and Immigration Center at The Heritage Foundation. With nearly 30 years of experience, including senior roles at the Department of Homeland Security, work with the House Judiciary Committee and service at the Department of Justice, Lora brings an insider's understanding of how immigration policy actually works. She'll share her perspective on what has changed, what comes next, and the immigration battles Washington will be debating in the months and years ahead.
