

Country Recording Artist
TREY TAYLOR
at the Royal Stage in the Sunrise Mall
(North end, next to Macy's)
January 13, 2024 • Doors Open at 5:30 pm

Trey Taylor is the youngest African-American in Country Music History.

What would it have been like to see some of the greats of country music like Kenny Rogers, Randy Travis, Ronnie Milsap, Wynonna Judd, Vince Gill, Tanya Tucker, The Oak Ridge Boys or Dolly Parton on a small stage at the start of their career? Better yet, what if you had a chance to chat with them before and after the show?

It is a good bet that Trey Taylor will make the list of country greats and you'll have a chance to say, "I saw him way back in '24 before he was famous."

Trey will be singing songs and telling stories at the Royal Stage on January 13th.

He is a great showman who will make it a night to remember.

If you are looking for a great Christmas Gift for a music fan, order your tickets today and join in for fun and stories.

Trey Taylor is a singer, composer, public speaker, philanthropist, multi-instrumentalist (He plays over nine instruments) and a true entrepreneur in entertainment.
