Keynote Speaker Katie Hopkins

We are blessed to again have Katie Hopkins back in Nevada County. Despite all the travel restrictions, Katie made it back into the US again. "I am fighting alongside you against the tyranny of the state and this grab for our freedoms. Grassroots patriots matter far more to me than idiotic rules made up by spineless politicians."

"I know Americans are hurting like no time before. "As a foreigner and a respectful outsider, I am here to remind you that you are, and will remain, the Land of the Free. You still stand apart from the rest of the world and you have your Constitution hard-wired into your souls; no one is ever going to take that away from you."

An Economist, Journalist and former Army Officer, Katie brings the shocking truths from Britain, her adventures breaking back into America. And of course, she brings her wicked sense of humor.

"Come join me. We will laugh together and I promise we will feel better together, too."
